WHAT IS THE KEITH KELLEY CLUB?

The Keith Kelley Club is a charitable organization named in honor of Officer Keith Kelley the first SJ police officer to lose his life in WWII.

The Club was organized in 1944 by now retired Chief of Detectives Bart Collins to assist fellow Officer Tom Fowler, a victim of cancer. Funds were raised but the cancer claimed Tom's life before the contributions were expended. That money became the seed for today's Keith Kelley Club.

The Keith Kelley Club strives to assist members in need. Over the years, assistance has been given in a variety of ways to include financial gifts or interest free loans. The Keith Kelley Club sends flowers or a remembrance to members who are hospitalized, injured or off work due to an illness.

Although we are not a social club, we do celebrate our good fortunes with an annual summer BBQ and winter Dinner Dance. All this comes about through the generosity of our membership.

We thank you for allowing the Keith Kelley Club to continue to be a pillar of support to our San Jose law enforcement family.
